

A workshop on "Emergency Medicine" including "Emergency Medical Management & Poisoning"

A workshop on "Emergency Medicine" including "Emergency Medical Management & Poisoning" for Certifying Surgeons & Para – Medical staff of all DAE units was jointly organized by Advisory Committee on Occupational Health (ACOH), AERB and KKNPP, NPCIL in collaboration with "The Trauma Life Support Society of India", Ernakulam Medical centre, Kochi on 17th & 18th July 2014 for the benefit of the paramedical staff and certifying surgeons working in the Occupational Health Centres / First Aid Centres of Department of Atomic Energy, (DAE) Units. Total 78 delegates from various DAE Units attended the Workshop. There were eight lectures related to "Emergency Medical Management & Poisoning" in two technical sessions and demonstrations on "Intubation, Laryngeal mask and airways, CPR and poisoning management"

Workshop on "Emergency Medicine" including "Emergency Medical Management & Poisoning" at KKNPP

(L to R: Shri R.S Sundar , Site Director, KKNPP, Shri R. Bhattacharya, Secretary AERB and Director (IPSD & ITSD), Dr PTV Nair, Chairman (ACOH), Dr.Ajay Dubey Medical Officer In Charge KKNPP, Dr R.T Sachdeo, Chief Medical Superintendent, NPCIL and Dr Raghu Director, Ernakulam Medical Centre